Making it Easy for You to Create a Joyful Christmas!

Have everything you need on one quick spot for fun this holiday season! 28 quick and simple Christmas activities with instructions and photos. Plus there are tips for each activity with ideas to make this work for younger or older kids, or other ways to do the craft or activity! The activity plans are each an entire week of activities (plus a supply list) on one sheet of paper, making it easy to print out and pin it up for the week. That also means that each activity is explained in 2-3 short sentences. They are the simplest of activities that use the supplies you have.

CELEBRATE Activity Plan: Week 1

- Monday: Draw, and cut, a spiral from a large circle. Lay flat and decorate with sequins, glitter and a star in the center! Punch a hole in the center and tie a string to hang up your spiral Christmas tree! (page 15)
- Tuesday: Hide gift boxes around the house in secret spots. Towards the evening, or draw the shades, hand these flashlights to look for all the hidden gift boxes. (page 16)

CELEBRATE Activity Plan: Week 3

- Monday: Tape stripes onto paper. Finger paint with red. Let dry and remove tape. Cut a candy cane shape! Hang on a door knob, or tree! (page 24)
- Tuesday: Cut out colored light bulbs from paper and hide them around the house. Go on a 'Christmas light' scavenger hunt. Tape them on a string when they're found and decorate the tree with them! (page 26)

CELEBRATE Activity Plan: Week Four

- Monday: Cut a tree from green paper. Draw lines for garland on it. Decorate tree with stickers along the lines of garland. (page 31)
- Tuesday: Cut out several Christmas trees and matching presents from various wrapping paper scraps. Glue trees onto paper. Find and glue the presents under the matching Christmas tree. (page 34)
- Wednesday: Spend the day decorating the kid's room for the holidays! Make it special. Have an extra tree? Hang up lights! (page 35)
- Thursday: Fold a piece of cardstock to make a card. Cut a triangle and glue onto card to make a Christmas tree. Cut and glue on a square to make the trunk. Cut and glue a star on the top of the tree. Decorate as desired. (page 36)
- Friday: Draw the outline of a snowman on blue paper. Trace and attach marshmallows to outline with glue. Add facial features and arms with markers or pieces of paper and glue. (page 37)
- Saturday: Cut a quarter 'piece of pie' out of a paper plate. Form the plate into a cone and staple together. Paint the tree and decorate with glue, glitter and sequins. (page 38)
- Sunday: Read holiday books by candlelight!

A Joyful Christmas with a Check!

Having a planned week of simple (doable) activities ready for you to do with your child, makes it super easy to actually do them! And by having a simple place to come back and check off that you did the activities gives you a sense of accomplishment. That little push you need to help you go ahead and have some fun with the kids!

The holidays slip by year after year. And soon the kids will be grown up and moving out. Don't let it happen this year.

Make this year one the kids will remember. Create family moments together.

Use these simple laid out activity plans for a memorable holiday.

These activity plans really help parents, just like you, find fun to do with their kids!

Thanks so much Jamie, these are AMAZING!!!!!! Sooo what I need right now, massively helping to alleviate my worries about my 2 year old being sat in front of the TV all the time when baby arrives :) - Amy D.

I love your ebooks! They are filled with so many practical, fun and engaging activities and ideas. -

I have been looking for something like your books for 3 years now since I became a full time Mum. I am quite a busy person who, to be honest, simply doesn't have the time or the energy to be super domesticated child education Mum. But these activities are really really easy to set up, and you are right, I DO have most of the stuff at home (I dont mind putting the odd thing on the grocery list for them e.g. hair gel haha), so I can actually see myself doing these things with my kids. I think you are a genius and I will be telling all my friends about these books. I also have a 6 week old baby boy so I am going to get years of use out of them. - Sarah A.

Great for full time Moms/Dads to keep kids busy and learning! Helpful for working Moms/Dads to get quick ideas when they are home with them.
